The Silver Fox hands down serves up some of the best cuts of Wagyu/American Kobe beef in the area! What is it? Simply put: it is the finest quality of beef available in the United States. Highly prized for their rich flavor, Wagyu/Kobe cattle's genetic predisposition yields a beef that contains a higher percentage of omega-3 and omega-6 fatty acids than typical beef. The combinations of these fats deliver a distinctive rich and tender flavor with intense marbling. It is arguably the most desired beef in the world, and lucky for us, we can enjoy it right here in Ellicottville!
